

Bonus Question 2

We have seen functions that may not be continuous at several points. Your task is to define a function (defined for every real number) which is not continuous at any point, and show why it is not continuous at any point.

Due: Wednesday July 18th.

Worth: 0.5 % bonus